

Sixth Call Results: United States-India Science & Technology Endowment Fund

After the review of the detailed Business Plan, Presentations and outcome of the Due-Diligence meetings, following Indo-US Binational teams have been selected for the USISTEF Grant announced under the 6th Call during the FY 2015-16.

S.No	Project Title	Lead Partners
		Indian	US
USISTEF 6th Call Proposals
1.	HI-058: Development of Non –Stress fetal monitoring tool that captures the fetal heart rate and its variability over the course of a 20 minute ante-natal checkup.	Brun Health (P) Ltd, New Delhi, India	Ivan Tzvetanov, Berkeley, CA, USA
2.	HI-065: Modular diagnosis of cervical cancer utilizing smartphone diagnostics and artificial intelligence.	Aindra Systems (P) Ltd, Bangalore, India	Alexapath LLC, Brooklyn, NY, USA
3.	HI-083: Development and certification of super affordable, rugged, reliable, connected and easy to use Defibrillators with a built-in power source (Hand Cranked) for low resource settings.	Jeevtronics Pvt. Ltd, Pune, India	Dhurjaty Electronics LLC, NY,USA Rochester,
4.	HI-036: Wireless sensor based wearable device for heart disease management.	Ravi Bhogu Monitra Healthcare (P) Ltd, Hyderabad	Joseph S. Menezes DuPont Silicon Valley Technology Center, Sunnyvale, CA, USA

Note: The successful teams are being contacted by email for completion of the procedural requirements and no separate communication would be sent to the teams which could not be selected in the 6th Call. This is only an “in-principal” approval for the grant of award and subject to compliance to specific conditions and general requirements by the potential awardees. The extent of exact financial support under each award may vary from the one proposed by the awardees at the time of submission and will be determined and informed separately to the potential awardees.